Lycoming College New Student Orientation 2017
Welcome Parents, Guardians, and Families!

This schedule is filled with opportunities for families and student supporters to learn about the Lycoming College community, meet faculty, professional staff, and student leaders, and receive answers to your questions. We hope you enjoy the day!

8:30-9:45 am Join your student on the Keiper Recreation Center track for the Clubs, Activities, and Campus Life Fair and a build your own fruit and yogurt bar.

9:00-9:30 am Dean Jilliane Bolt-Michewicz (Academic Services) will be available at the Academic Resource Center table on the Keiper Recreation Center track to talk with anyone who wishes to learn about how to disclose disabilities and receive accommodations at the College.

9:45-10:20 am Dean Andrew Kilpatrick (Dean of First-Year Students) kicks off orientation with a “Welcome Class of 2021” ceremony for you and your student in the Keiper Recreation Center. Others to speak include:

- President Kent Trachte
- Dr. Dan Miller, Vice President for Student Life
- Dr. Phil Sprunger, Provost and Dean of the College
- Rob Dunkleberger, Chief Information Officer

10:20-10:30 am Peers helping peers is a key component of success at Lycoming College. Sarah Fox (Residential Life Coordinator) and student leader Sanna Fogt continue the Welcome ceremony in the Keiper Recreation Center by introducing the Student Orientation Staff (SOS) to you and your student.

10:30-11:00 am With the students now in small groups visiting six stations throughout the day, now begins the opportunity for us to spend time with parents, guardians and families. We will stay put in the Keiper Recreation Center for just a while longer.

- Allison Holladay -- Opportunities for international travel and studies
- Amy Reyes – Looking ahead to Family Weekend
- Patricia Bausinger – Buying and renting textbooks
