DAVID STOLLMAN

On Sunday January 23rd Lycoming College’s Panhellenic and Interfraternity Council hosted CampusSpeak CEO David Stollman and his Buy In or Get Out presentation. David is a bold, in your face and sometimes brutally honest speaker whose tell it like it is attitude is sometimes met with negative criticism from chapters who do not feel any changes need to be made to better their current standing. His keynote offers ways to improve membership, keep members accountable for their actions and brings the focus back to the values based experience Greek organizations were founded upon.

This was the third year in a row that Lycoming College was able to co-sponsor a speaker with several other nearby campuses and the first time Lycoming was able to host. The Recreation Center had 250+ with delegations from Lock Haven University and Penn College of Technology. Chapter members were able to mingle with one another before and after the keynote address and multiple chapter photos were taken for Alpha Sigma Tau, Sigma Sigma Sigma, Kappa Delta Rho, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Alpha Xi Delta and Sigma Nu who have a special bond in that Sigma Nu was pivotal in the founding of Alpha Xi Delta.

Junior Leanne Burnett, Sophomore Katherine Wellmon, and Freshmen Kaitlyn Bower, Tiffanie Brown, Maralee Fye, Christine Gillogly, Elizabeth Gordon, Kassandra Lee, Lindsay Schulze, and Amy Vaughn make up the Alpha Pi new member class. The current sisters can’t wait to see what these wonderful women will contribute to better the house!

The weekend after formal bid return, Alpha Sigma Tau had the pleasure of welcoming four alumnae back to the chapter for an afternoon workshop. Stephanie Friddle, Lyndsay Forte, Ashley Meyer, and Amanda Monday spent the afternoon of January 29th with the sisters, answering questions and using their experiences to give valuable, helpful advice.

The sisters are currently preparing for the Lycoming College Relay for Life which will be held on March 25th-26th. Alpha Sigma Tau currently has two teams raising money. Anyone interested in donating to either Alpha Sigma Tau team should contact Skyaira Confer or any sister.

Alpha Sigma Tau is already eagerly looking forward to Greek Week next month and is excited to see how the semester continues!

Alpha Xi Delta would like to congratulate all of the houses on a successful bid return! We’re also proud to welcome with hearts and sunshine our eleven amazing new members: Alysia Williams, Brittany Coppola, Chelsea Reimer, Danielle Foye, Jen Gillin, Katy Wrona, Liz Klusman, Raelyn Jackson, Samara Santos, Sayumi Akashi, and Shelby Armold. We’re excited to start our new member process and show these girls what AXiD is all about.

Alpha Xi Delta is planning their spring philanthropy and starting to plan their Pink Rose Formal. They’re also excited for their upcoming Big/Little reveal and planning for Initiation.

The Iota Mu Chapter recently had a blast at Sigma Nu’s White Rose Formal. We’ve also mailed out a Thank You banner to the troops in Afghanistan to thank them for all that they’ve done and are doing. The banner is going to be hung up in their mess hall.

Alpha Rho Omega is proud to welcome its newest addition, the BETA IOTA Class, consisting of 5 girls: Krystalynn Anderson, Kerri Kearney, Maranda Poe, Julia Was, and Alyssa Young. Alpha Rho has started planning for what will be quite a busy semester! They just finished up with their first big fund-raising event, a masquerade themed benefit ball entitled "Share the Love". The proceeds of the benefit ball went towards "The Center" on Campbell street, an after-school program dedicated to helping the children of the Williamsport area. Likewise, they are keeping up with their service hours by finalizing plans for their annual spring philanthropy event, Quarter Mile of Quarters, a fundraiser that contributes to a memorial scholarship honoring Joe Young, the brother of an alumni who passed away in a drunk driving accident.

Alpha Rho Omega is also very excited about their upcoming 30 year anniversary, which they will celebrate with a Birthday Barbecue and spring Formal, held on the weekend of April 2nd at the Bullfrog Brewery.

The Sisters of Alpha Rho Omega would like to extend their congratulations to every Greek house on their newest new member classes, and we hope everyone enjoyed a very Happy Valentine’s Day!
