(present at various times throughout the program)

Located near the banks of the Susquehanna River in Williamsport, Pa., Lycoming College is one of the 50 oldest colleges in the nation.
A Two-Week Adventure!

Throughout this fortnight, the classes, programs, field trips, and activities will expose you to the breadth of a liberal arts and sciences education and the vibrancy of campus life at our residential college.

All the events on this schedule have been labeled according to one of fourteen categories. Although we have only listed one category next to each event, in actuality many of these experiences can fall under multiple categories. Being aware of these categories will help you to remember these unique opportunities, and also reflect on the impact that each experience will have on your life, goals, and aspirations.

The categories and codes for understanding the schedule are:

ACADEMIC INTERESTS
- Humanities - HUMA
- Social Sciences - SSCI
- Natural Sciences - STEM
  - Fine Arts - FINA
- Mathematical Sciences - MATH
- Business - BUS
- Education - EDUC
- First-Year Seminars - FYS

PERSONAL GROWTH - PERSON

COLLEGE PREPAREDNESS - C-PREP

NETWORKING - NETWORK

COMMUNITY SERVICE - SERVE

KNOWING YOUR COMMUNITY - COMMUNITY

LEADERSHIP, RECREATION, and INVOLVEMENT - LEAD
SATURDAY JULY 13, 2019

7:00 PM  Welcome to Lycoming College Prep 2019!
After you check in to Asbury Hall, Intern Trenton and the LCPFs will host a pizza party in Asbury Hall Lounge.

7:30 PM  Getting Started…and Looking Forward
Dean Andrew Kilpatrick will set expectations and review the exciting schedule of classes and events for the next two weeks.

SUNDAY JULY 14, 2019

Optional Morning Worship Opportunities include:

8:30 AM  Catholic Mass at Church of the Resurrection in historic Muncy, Pa.
14 miles from campus, this active parish is located in the oldest borough in Lycoming County. In addition to Mass, students will enjoy a drive down Main Street—a street lined with beautiful 18th century homes. Meet outside Asbury Hall at 8:00.

Note about worship opportunities: All religious and worship opportunities on July 14 and 21 are optional. Other opportunities are available upon request.

9:00 AM  Making the Lounge OUR Lounge
Students not attending the optional worship services will spend time in the Asbury Hall Lounge with the LCPFs. Many games and supplies are available in the Lyco Prep office. Have fun!

10:00 AM  Enjoy an Official Tour of Lycoming College Campus
This guided tour with LCPF (and Lycoming College Student Tour Guide) Maverick will give you the opportunity to become more acquainted with Lycoming College and its facilities.

11:00 AM  Lunch in the Dining Hall in the Wertz Student Center
12:30 PM  Ice Jackhammer Team-Building Activities on the Quad
LEAD
Dr. Mike Smith, Assistant Professor of Mathematics, will help us get to know each other through participation in unique, fun, team-building, and problem-solving activities. Prepare to think and to move!

4:00 PM  Cruising the Scenic Susquehanna River
NETWORK
All aboard the Hiawatha paddleboat, one of central Pennsylvania’s main attractions, as we head down the historic Susquehanna River for a relaxing cruise. Joining us is Mary-Louise Paucke, Alumna and past President of the Alumni Executive Council.

6:15 PM  Dinner in the Dining Hall

8:00 PM  Break a Leg! (Dragon’s Lair)
FINA
One popular major for creative expression at a liberal arts college is theatre. Dr. Biliana Stoytcheva-Horissian (“Dr. B”), Associate Professor of Theatre, joins us to present this hands-on acting workshop.

MONDAY JULY 15, 2019  1st DAY OF CLASSES

8:00 AM  Breakfast in the Dining Hall

8:45 AM  Orientation to Campus Computing
Students in the STEM group will report to Lynn 257 and Heim 131 for orientation, while students in the HUMA group will report to the Wesley Seminar Room.

Students are earning two credits for the work they will do in the academic courses. Students will either be taking the HUMA or the STEM course.

5:00 PM Poetry for People Who Hate Poetry (Lynn 257)
HUMA
Some people love poetry; others do not. Dr. Darby Lewes, Professor of English, will share her infectious passion for poetry and the liberal arts with us. Watch for a special appearance by Lyco Dog!

6:00 PM Dinner in the Dining Hall

7:15 PM How Do You Know That You Know What You Know, You Know? (Lynn 257)
FYS – HUMA
How do you know what you know? Is the gap between knowing and believing vast or small? What is the difference between the two? Dr. Mike Heyes, Assistant Professor of Religion, will lead us in an investigation of the distinction between religion and science and their relationship to one another.

8:45 PM Pigeons, Trees, Cobras and Crows
COMMUNITY
Finding meaningful ways to destress is important for college students. “Epic Fitness by Buffy” in Williamsport introduces us to these and other poses and positions. This class is designed for all of us, whether we are experienced at yoga or first-timers.

TUESDAY JULY 16, 2019

8:00 AM Breakfast in the Dining Hall

9:00 AM The Historian’s Witchcraft: Salem Witches Fact and Fiction (Wesley Seminar Room)
FYS – HUMA

FYS – STEM Fossils, Geologic Time, and Earth History: Exploring and Discovering Extinct Organisms and Ancient Ecosystems (Lynn 257 and Heim 131)

FYS – HUMA

FYS – STEM  Fossils, Geologic Time, and Earth History: Exploring and Discovering Extinct Organisms and Ancient Ecosystems (Lynn 257 and Heim 131)

3:15 PM  Nonverbal Communication: What are we really saying?
FYS - SSCI (Lynn 257)

It’s not just what we say that is important, but also how we say it. Much of the communication that occurs in our relationships is nonverbal and conveys even more than the actual words we utter. Join Dr. Tina Norton, Assistant Professor of Psychology, to discuss how nonverbal cues such as gestures, facial expressions, and body language affect how we communicate with others.

5:00 PM  Picnicking, Swimming, and Ice Cream, Oh My!
LEAD

Dr. Dan Miller, Vice President for Student Life and Dean of Students, and his awesome wife, Barb, will welcome us into their home for a fun and relaxing afternoon of swimming, outdoor games, and a cookout. For dessert? A clue: it’s accompanied by a playful melody that can first be heard three blocks away.

8:00 PM  Historian on the Move (Lynn 257)
HUMA

Have you ever heard a teacher or professor say they are taking a sabbatical and wondered what that even means? Just back from a year-long sabbatical, Dr. Cullen Chandler, Professor of History, will share stories of his travels, research, and projects.

9:00 PM  Pool and Recreation Time!
LEAD

The Lamade Gymnasium pool is all ours. The Keiper Recreation Center facilities have also been opened for you including the courts, track, and cardio room. Have fun!
WEDNESDAY JULY 17, 2019

8:00 AM  Breakfast in the Dining Hall

9:00 AM  The Historian’s Witchcraft: Salem Witches Fact and Fiction (Wesley Seminar Room)

FYS – STEM  Fossils, Geologic Time, and Earth History: Exploring and Discovering Extinct Organisms and Ancient Ecosystems (Lynn 257 and Heim 131)

11:30 AM  Lunch in the Dining Hall

12:30 PM  Lights, Camera, Action! (Communications Building)

FINA  Leah Peterson, Associate Professor of Film and Video Arts (FVA), will show you how to put your imagination to the screen by introducing you to various aspects of video production. FVA courses are growing in popularity with majors and non-majors alike.

1:30 PM  The Historian’s Witchcraft: Salem Witches Fact and Fiction (Wesley Seminar Room)

FYS – STEM  Fossils, Geologic Time, and Earth History: Exploring and Discovering Extinct Organisms and Ancient Ecosystems (Lynn 257 and Heim 131)

3:15-4:30 PM  An Afternoon Strolling the Avenue of the Arts

COMMUNITY  Downtown Williamsport is a hub of businesses, small shops, coffee and tea rooms, cool restaurants, theater, and arts. Today we’ll check some of it out.
3:15 PM  The Lycoming College Art Gallery
FINA
The Lycoming College Art Gallery serves as a symbolic bridge between the College and the City and hosts exhibitions from around the world. Artists-in-residence show their work here, as do our art faculty and students. On exhibit now is “Singular Fable” by John McKaig, whose use of nautical imagery, water, and the human figure communicates the essential ideas of how we relate to each other, how we affect each other, and how to move to a space that is empowering and encouraging.

4:00 PM  Community Arts Center
FINA
Originally constructed during the roaring 1920’s, this magnificent state-of-the-art theater now stands as a symbol of and home for Williamsport’s impressive and diverse arts scene, welcoming touring productions and hosting many community-based organizations. Lycoming College is a proud partner of the CAC: our students display their art and debut their films there. Lycoming College’s Honors Convocation is also held here annually in the Spring. Our gratitude to Todd Mertz, House Manager, for welcoming us today.

4:45 PM  The Stonehouse
COMMUNITY
Tonight, we enjoy The Stonehouse, a trendy downtown restaurant, which has a unique wood-fired oven that uses only locally forested hardwoods with no other source of heat. Enjoy this delicious and unique experience.

7:00 PM  Game Night in Snowden Library
LEAD
Liberal arts college libraries are best known for providing countless resources and research help to students, but at residential campuses, the librarians also like to have a little fun!
Head over to Snowden Library to play giant yard games or break out a board game from our collection, such as Apples to Apples, Sushi Go!, or Forbidden Desert with Dean Paige Flanagan, Associate Dean and Director of Library Services, and the Instructional Services Librarians, Professors Mary Broussard, Taryn Bartholomew ('09), and Emily Moran.

THURSDAY JULY 18, 2019

8:00 AM  Breakfast in the Dining Hall

9:00 AM  The Historian’s Witchcraft: Salem Witches Fact and Fiction (Wesley Seminar Room)

3:15 PM  Speak Up! Public Speaking for College and Beyond
C-PREP
(Lynn 257)
Public speaking is essential to success. Mary Broussard, Instructional Services Librarian and Associate Professor, will present some basic principles of public speaking, emphasizing preparation and dealing with stage fright. We will use the party game Snake Oil to think about persuasion and audience analysis as well as work in small groups to prepare a short special-occasion speech.

4:30 PM  Dinner in the Dining Hall

5:30 PM  The Wide Eye: Poetry and the Liberal Arts
HUMA
(College Archives)
Shanna Wheeler, Director of Lycoming’s Writing Center and author of two books of poetry, will read a sampling of her work to show us how her education and profession in the liberal arts have enriched her life and writing. Afterwards, the poet will treat us to a book-signing.

7:15 PM  Art Workshops (Fine Arts Building)
FINA
An important part of a liberal arts education is exposure to the fine arts. Howard Tran, Professor of Art and Jeremiah Johnson, Instructor of Art, offer these hands-on workshops in which they encourage you to exercise your creative side.

9:00 AM  Paddle and a Picnic
LEAD
Jae Ellison, Director of Outdoor Leadership & Education, takes us to Little Pine State Park—2,158 acres surrounded by a beautiful mountain section of Tiadaghton State Forest in the Pennsylvania Wilds. Guided and instructed by Jae, we will enjoy canoes, kayaks, swimming, and a picnic. Be sure to keep your eyes open because you just might spot a Haliaeetus leucocephalus. (Hint: this bird was added to the official seal of the United States of America in 1782).

3:30 PM  Community Service at West House Personal Care Home
SERVE
Personal growth and development are important components of a liberal arts education. At Lycoming College, through collaboration with academic, faith-based, and community partners, students are provided with quality service experiences that challenge them to reflect upon the importance of their contribution, and the greater impact it has on the local, national, and global communities. Today’s service experience brings us to West House Personal Care Home—an 18 bed facility that welcomes all, even those without the ability to pay.

8:00 PM  Recreation Time
LEAD
Head over to the Keiper Recreation Center and use those facilities that have been opened for you including the courts, track, and cardio room.

SUNDAY JULY 21, 2019

Worship opportunities may follow last Sunday’s schedule. The LCPFs will post the specifics on the community bulletin board.

9:00 AM  Free Time
Free Time
Students not attending worship services are free to work on class projects, read, or play games in Asbury Hall Lounge.
10:00 AM Clyde Peeling’s Reptiland
SSCI
Located in Allenwood, Pennsylvania, Reptiland is a zoo specializing in reptiles and amphibians. The zoo houses mambas, cobras, vipers, pythons and other snakes, as well as alligators, tortoises, lizards, and frogs. They also have a walk-through aviary filled with colorful parakeets. Current Lycoming College Warrior Joel Noble ’22 is doing his WISE Internship there. Perhaps we’ll spot Joel in this habitat!

4:00 PM Bowling and Bouncing
COMMUNITY
Located in downtown Williamsport, the Liberty Arena offers plenty of fun activities, even for college students who need a healthy break from their studies. Today, we will enjoy bowling, a trampoline park, laser tag, and a full arcade.

8:00 PM Recreation Time
LEAD
Head over to the Keiper Recreation Center and use those facilities that have been opened for you including the courts, track, and cardio room.

MONDAY JULY 22, 2019 BACK TO CLASS!
