

Timothy Piazza Anti-Hazing Institutional Report

In accordance with the Timothy Piazza Anti-Hazing Law, Lycoming College publishes an anti-hazing report on actual findings of Lycoming College student organization conduct violations by organizations formally affiliated with the institution.

The report includes name of the organization, the date charges assessed, the actual charge, a general description of the incident, findings and sanctions placed on the organization, and the date it was resolved. For additional information regarding Student Organization conduct processes, please review the Student Code of Conduct.

Lycoming College will maintain this anti hazing-report for the past 5 years of any and all information concerning violations of the Timothy Piazza Anti-Hazing Law on the College’s website. This report will be updated twice a year on January 1 and August 1.
